

Tuition Addendum – October 2023

Definition of a quarter credit hour of instruction

Gupton-Jones College defines a quarter credit hour as a period of instruction that consists of a 50-minute lecture, recitation, or class that meets once a week for an eleven-week quarter. Laboratory sessions are credited one quarter hour credit for every two-hour meeting each week. Clinical Experience hours are credited one quarter hour credit per three-hour meeting.

AS – On-Campus and Online

- Starting October 2023, all students enrolling or reenrolling, the tuition rate will be $330 per credit enrolled
- Current full-time students (12 or more credits per quarter) tuition rate will not be adjusted according to your enrollment agreement
- Current part-time students (11 or less credits per quarter) tuition rate will not be adjusted according to your enrollment agreement

Gupton-Jones College of Funeral Service charges tuition per quarter based on credits enrolled.

To be implemented October (Fall) 2023